INEQUALITIES	Laura Maeran (coordinatrice) Giovanni Agosti Alessandro Balducci Alessandra Casarico Massimo Labra Jacopo Stoppa	The course offers an in-depth analysis of four key projects from the 24th International Exhibition Inequalities at Triennale Milano: it maps inequalities and explores advanced political projects for a society where differences become dynamic resources within new forms of community. Students will critically engage with the themes and narratives behind the exhibitions, encouraging active discussion, interdisciplinary analysis, and a reflection on the role of cultural institutions in addressing global crucial topics.	1,5	01/10/2025 – 08/10/2025 – 15/10/2025 - 22/10/2025 - 29/10/2025	Collegio/online (+ lezione del 29/10/2025 visita alla mostra)	SCIENZE UMANE-SCIENZE BIOMEDICHE-SCIENZE E TECNOLOGIE	CPS
L'ANTARTIDE	Roberto Sergio Azzoni	The course offers a multidisciplinary journey into Antarctic, an extraordinary natural laboratory for the study of our planet. It covers geography, geology, and glaciology, with a focus on climate change and extreme ecosystems, alongside the historical aspects of exploration, the Antarctic Treaty, and geopolitical issues related to resource management and international cooperation. Students will be provided with a comprehensive overview of Antarctic as a unique natural laboratory: students will acquire the tools to understand its central role in global scientific, environmental, and political challenges.	1,5	02/10/2025 - 09/10/2025 - 16/10/2025 - 23/10/2025 - 30/10/2025 - 06/11/2025	Collegio/online	SCIENZE UMANE-SCIENZE BIOMEDICHE-SCIENZE SOCIALI	CSR
