ART. 1

The Scuola Universitaria Superiore IUSS of Pavia, within the framework of the Actions set out in the Positive Action Plan (PAP 2026–2028), is launching an award worth € 1,500.00 (one thousand five hundred euros), gross of any statutory charges, for the best artistic work that incorporates the dimension of diversity, integration, and equity. The aim is to promote a culture of equal opportunities in academic and professional environments and to foster greater awareness of issues related to anti-discrimination, violence prevention, human rights, gender equality, and the promotion of the integration of diversity in all its forms.

ART. 2

The competition is open to Scuola IUSS undergraduate students in good standing with the IUSS career plan and to IUSS doctoral students in good standing with the IUSS study plan at the time of publication of this announcement. There will also be an ‘out of competition’ section for former IUSS undergraduate and PhD students belonging to the AlumniIUSS community. Each participant can submit only one artistic product in different format, visual (e.g. drawings, paintings, photographs), audiovisual (e.g. commercials, short films) or literary (e.g. poems, short stories), having as theme of interest what reported at Art. 1 of this announcement.

ART. 3

The Prize will be awarded by a Committee appointed by the Rector of Scuola IUSS, following a resolution of the Academic Senate. The Committee will consist of four internal members selected from the Comitato Unico di Garanzia (CUG) of the Scuola IUSS and one external expert with specific expertise in the topics outlined in Art. 1 of this announcement. The selection of candidates will be carried out by the Committee based on the evaluation of the artistic work submitted by the applicants in relation to the themes specified in Art. 1.
